FOR WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP

Chlengo, Ill., Nov. 23.—Illinois, defeating Wisconsin Saturday, gained undisputed title to the Big Nine conference championship. Nebraska, by defeating lowa, gained best claim to leading honors west of the Mississippi and made a substantial bid for the "western championship." Critics are divided concerning the merits of the Cornbuskers and the Illinois, although the latter, they fhink, have the better of the argument on the unreliable basis of comparative scores.

Iowa made a gallant struggle against the Missouri valley champions but the kicking ability of Capt. Halligan, pronounced one of the greatest of western line men, turned the tide in favor of Nebraska. HICKOK MOTEL AND AUTO LINE,

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 22.—Big league basebail said a temporary farewell to the Pacific coast Sunday in a double header divided between San Francisco and Oakland. The first game, played across the bay, was an all-American victory, 4 to 2. St. Louis Bill James piloted the winners against the offerings of his namesake from Boston. In the afternoon on Ewing field, the all-Nationals took their revenge, romping away from their opponents, 13 to 2.

The teams will feave for Honolulu
